

QuickNotes

October 11, 2006

Scroll down for details on these listings:

- NEW: "Fair Use of Copyrighted Materials" 10/11
- NEW: "Are We There Yet? 21st Century Challenges in Achieving Diversity" 10/17
- NEW: "Digital Storytelling" 10/17
- New Student Employee Orientation 10/11
- ReadAloud 10/12
- KNOW Classes

NEW: "Fair Use of Copyrighted Materials Workshop," today, Wednesday, October 11, 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., Room 400, Prior Health Sciences Library:

Michelle Deis, Head of the Health Sciences Copyright Management Office, will discuss the fair use exception for use of copyrighted materials in education and research. Michelle will discuss the four factors set forth in the copyright law which are to be weighed when determining fair use and example situations will be presented. There will also be a question and answer time from 12:30 to 1:00 p.m. To register for this workshop, access the Prior Health Sciences Library home page at <http://library.med.ohio-state.edu> and under the Calendar click on "KNOW 400: Copyright in Education," then click "Register online."

NEW: "Are We There Yet? 21st Century Challenges in Achieving Diversity," President's 2006-2007 Diversity Lecture & Cultural Arts Series, Tuesday, October 17, 4 p.m. Saxbe Auditorium, Drinko Hall, 55 W. 12th Avenue: The speaker is Charles J. Ogletree, Jr., recently named one of the 100 most influential Black Americans by Ebony magazine. Free; open to all faculty, staff and students. For further information, contact Edie Waugh at 292-4355.

NEW: "Digital Storytelling," Tuesday, October 17, Smith Building Board Room, OCLC, Dublin Ohio, < <http://www.oclc.org/oclc/menu/to-airpt.htm> >

<http://www.oclc.org/oclc/menu/to-airpt.htm> : Featuring presenters Anne Fields and Karen Diaz. Come and hear how digital storytelling contributes to the increasing role of social technologies in our society and in our libraries. This program will further define and illustrate the use of digital storytelling in the library environment. See examples of library stories, discuss the potentials for how this medium can be used, discuss the challenges of creating a digital storytelling "program" and issues surrounding how these stories might be stored and shared. Refreshments, 6:30 p.m.; presentation, 7 p.m. RSVP to Dr. Laura Cheng

New Student Employee Orientation, October 11, 5:30-7:30 p.m., Science & Engineering Library, Room 090: Training Advisory Council has added some exciting new elements to the orientation sessions this quarter, including a digital storytelling presentation, interactive electronic polling with attendees, and a new photo quiz of the various library locations. As always, refreshments and activity prizes will be given to the students who attend. Any supervisor interested in seeing the revised orientation is also welcome to attend. No reservations are needed. Additional workshops for student employees who cannot attend today are scheduled for Tuesday, October 17, 5:30-7:30 pm; Friday, October 27: 2:30-4:30 pm. All sessions will be at SEL in Room 090.

ReadAloud, Thursday, October 12, 3-4 p.m., Wexner Center Cafe: Check for this week's readers. ReadAloud will take place in the courtyard in fair weather and otherwise in the adjacent space indoors.

The KNOW classes for Fall '06 at the Prior Health Sciences Library offer faculty and staff development opportunities in healthcare education, information, & technology. October classes include; Copyright and Fair Use, Resources for EBM Information, Finding and Using Online Journals, Health Information Literacy, and Technology Tools and Podcasting. For information about all of the Fall classes and online registration, go to the Prior Health Sciences Library calendar <http://library.med.ohio-state.edu/index.cfm> We are interested in adding new topics to the classes and appreciate your suggestions. Contact Rebecca Ayers, 292-4893 or ayers.63@osu.edu

The next issue of QuickNotes will be sent to "Liball" on Tuesday, October 17. If you have something you'd like included, send it to Larry Allen at <mailto:allen.916@osu.edu> by Monday, October 16. Please make the subject heading "QuickNotes."